GENERAL COURT DIRECTORY.

COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THIS WORK.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

President Judge.....The Honourable Henry Baldwin, one of the Associate Justices of the United States Supreme Court.

Associate Judge.....The Honourable Archibald Randall.

Meets on the 11th of April and the 11th of October, in each year, except those dates should fall on Sunday, and then on the day following.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

Judge.....The Honourable Archibald Randall. Meets on the third Monday of February, May, August and November.

COURT OF ADMIRALTY.

Judge.....The Honourable Archibald Randall.

This Court is considered always open, the adjournments being at the option of the Judge.

COURT OF BANKRUPTCY.

Judge.....The Honourable Archibald Randall.

This Court is, by act of Congress, considered as always open, the adjournment being at the option of the judge.

The above are all held in the western room of the second story of the centre building of the State House.

Clerk.....Francis Hopkinson, Esq.

Marshall.....Isaac Otis, Esq.

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Chief Justice.....The Honourable John Bannister Gibson.

Associate Justices.....The Honourable Molton C. Rogers, Charles Huston, John Kennedy and Thomas Sergeant.

The Eastern District is composed of the City and County of Philadelphia, and of the Counties of Delaware, Chester, Montgomery, Bucks, Northampton, Lehigh, Monroe, Pike, Lancaster and Schuylkill.

The jurisdiction in all those counties is appellate, except in the City and County of Philadelphia, where, besides appellate jurisdiction, there is original jurisdiction in all cases where the amount in controversy is five hundred dollars and upwards.

There are two terms for the Eastern District, holden at Philadelphia on the third Monday of December, continuing three weeks; on the second Monday of March, continuing two weeks. These terms are continued, by adjournment, for a longer period. The first and last days of each term are return days. The last Monday of July is also a return day, when the Court is opened for motions, and so forth. The first Monday of each month is also a return day for all process, original, mesne or final. The Court has power to fix special return days.

Meets in the south room of the second story of the Masonic Hall.

NISI PRIUS COURT.

There are four sessions of the Nisi Prius holden by the judges of the Supreme Court—the judges alternating—commencing on the first Mondays of September, November, January and March, in each year. Each session is divided into two periods of at least three weeks each, for jury trials. The remainder of the sessions is appropriated to equity cases and arguments in this court.

The judge at Nisi Prius hears and determines all cases in equity brought in the Supreme Court.

The act of Assembly usually termed the affidavit of defence law, has been extended to this Court. The arbitration act is also in force.

Prothonotary of the Eastern District.....Joseph Simon Cohen, Esq.

DISTRICT COURT.

President Judge.....The Honourable Thomas M'Kean Pettit.

Associate Judges.....The Honourable George M. Stroud and Joel Jones.

There are three terms for jury trials in each year, commencing on the first Monday of March, September, and December. The first four weeks of each are devoted to motions and arguments, and the nine weeks following to jury trials.

The June term is entirely for motions and arguments.

There are four terms in each year for process: the first Monday in every month being return day. The March term commences after the first Monday of February; the June term commences after the first Monday of May; the September term commences after the first Monday of August; the December term commences after the first Monday of November.

Meets in the south room of the second story, and in the north room of the first story of the County Court House.

Prothonotary.....Edward C Dale, Esq.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

President Judge.....The Honourable Edward King.

Associate Judges.....The Honourable John Richter Jones, James Campbell and Anson V. Parsons.

The regular terms commence on the first Monday of March and June, the third Monday of September, and the first Monday of December. The first Monday of each month is a return day for all original processes. No jury trials are held in the June term; but at each of the other terms, six weeks are set apart for trials by jury; and the remainder of the term is devoted to arguments in the equity and other branches of the Court.

The March term commences after the first

PHILADELPHIA STATISTICS.

The following exhibit presents a summary detail of the character and the condition of most, if not all, of the Public Institutions in the City and County, applicable to each on the 1st of January, 1843.

Eastern Penitentiary.—Located on Coates st. above Schuylkill Third, was built by act of the State Legislature, passed the sessions of 1820–21, and was prepared for the reception of prisoners in 1825. Mr. George Thompson is the Warden, who is assisted by 11 overseers.

County Prison.—Located on the Moyamensing road south of the City. Convicts are confined therein. The officers are, William H. Klapp, physician; Anthony Freed, superintendent; one matron, one deputy keeper, and 5 assistants.

Untried and Vagrant Department, one deputy keeper and 5 assistants, and 4 overseers.

William J. Crans, clerk.

House of Refuge.—This institution, for the reformation of juvenile offenders, is situated corner of Coates street and the Ridge Road, was founded in 1825, and received its first support from benevolent individuals, who have since been assisted by annual appropriations from the State, and the County of Philadelphia. The whole number of offenders received since its completion to 1842, is 1057 boys, and 441 girls —total 1498. Mr. Edwin Young is superintendent.

Franklin Institute.—Located in Seventh st. below Market, was organized in December, 1823, for the promotion of mechanic arts, and incorporated March, 1824. It has 2500 members, who contribute $3 per year, or are constituted life members by the payment of $25. The exhibitions are held biennally, and lectures are given four nights in the week, for 21 weeks in the year. Conversation meetings are held every fourth Thursday in the month, when specimens are exhibited by the inventors, the uses and utilities of which are explained in general conversation informally, and are of the most pleasing and interesting character. The Institute has over 3000 volumes of books, numerous cabinets of models, minerals, geological specimens, and specimens in arts and manufactures. Also, a drawing school, in which pupils are admitted for $5 per year, with the privilege of attending the lectures. The officers are, a President, two Vice-Presidents, and a Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and twenty-four Managers, chosen annually.

Two-thirds of the Managers are to be Manufacturers or Mechanics.

Members are admitted to the Library. The Lectures may be attended by the minor sons, daughters, wards, or apprentices of members who have paid their annual subscriptions, by the payment of $1.

William H. Hamilton, Actuary.

Blockley Almshouse.—This extensive building is situated on the west side of the river Schuylkill, opposite the city. The average number of paupers admitted yearly is 1450, two-thirds of which number are foreigners. The original cost of the building, including 200 acres of land, was $850,000. The annual expenses may be estimated with considerable accuracy at $150,000. William S. Stockton, Steward.

Friends' Almshouse.—Located in Walnut st., between Third and Fourth, was founded in the year 1729, by the Monthly Meeting of Friends, when three houses, 15 feet square, facing the north, and two of the same dimensions, facing the east, were erected. In 1745 two others were put up, adjoining, and six others on the front of the street. The six houses in front, and two or three in the rear, were pulled down in 1841, and on the site six beautiful offices, three stories high, have been erected. The institution is sustained by the Philadelphia Monthly Meeting, and by legacies and donations. There is a school for coloured children on the lot, in the rear, under the charge of the Southern Monthly Meeting. There are but four inmates (females) at present, and there has not been more for a long period of time.

The Pennsylvania Hospital.—One of the oldest institutions of the kind in this country, having been established by individul subscription in the year 1752. Its objects were to relieve the sick poor, and for the reception and cure of lunatics. The institution derives its principal support from the interest on permanent funds which have been bequeathed to it. It generally contains about 115 patients, and its spacious buildings occupy the square of ground between Spruce and Pine, and Eighth and Ninth streets. Many persons pay for their board, but any one seriously injured by accident, is always received without charge if brought within 24 hours after its occurrence. Steward, Allan Clopp.

The Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane.—This is a branch of the above corporation, and now receives all the insane who were formerly sent to the house in the city of Philadelphia. Its buildings, which are very extensive, were completed in 1841, and are located on a fine farm of 111 acres, two miles west of the Schuylkill on the Haverford road—41 acres are enclosed by a substantial wall as a pleasure-ground for the patients. It generally contains about 120 patients. To obtain admission for a patient it is necessary to procure a certificate of insanity, and to arrange the rate of board, &c. with one of the attending managers. This hospital is under the direction of Dr. Thomas S. Kirkbride, its physician; the assistant physician is Dr. R. A. Given. Steward, William G. Malin. Matron, Mary D. Sharpless.

The Widows' Asylum.—Situated at the North-east corner of Schuylkill Fifth and Race streets, was instituted in 1819, by contributions, and still depends for support upon the same resources. It is designed for the reception of widows over 60 years of age, and contains an average of 97, the oldest of whom is 97 years of age. The average annual expense is about $3,500. The affairs of the institution are under the management of an association of ladies. Alice Harlan, Matron.

Philadelphia Orphans' Asylum.—This institution is located in Schuylkill Fifth street, north of Cherry; was instituted in 1815, and originally supported by legacies, &c. The original building was destroyed by fire in January, 1823, and 23 children perished in the flames. During the same year the present building was completed; since which time the institution has prospered under the management of a number of benevolent ladies. Miss Mary Bradly, Matron.

St. John's Orphans' Asylum.—This institution for boys is located in Chestnut street, west of Twelfth, and was founded in the year 1830, by the Rev. John Hughes. It is under the management of the Sisters of Charity. The number of inmates is limited to 60.

St. Joseph's Asylum.—The Roman Catholic Society of St. Joseph for educating and maintaining poor orphan children, was founded in the year 1817 by a number of gentlemen, and is said to be the first institution of the kind founded in America. It is confined to the reception of females, and the number being limited to 100, and none admitted under four years of age, nor over eight. It is under the direction of Sisters of Charity, and supported by contributions. The annual expense is about 4000 dollars. Location, southwest corner of Seventh and Spruce streets.

The Magdalen Asylum.—Located in Schuylkill Third street above Race, was founded about the year 1800, by the Magdalen Society, which association still supports it.

Friends' Asylum near Frankford.—This Asylum for the Insane was founded in the year 1815, by contributions from members of the Society of Friends, among whom were Roberts Vaux, Haines and other distinguished philanthropists, and is now supported by the pay received for the patients, and contributions, and donations. Originally it was designed for the reception only of those "in membership or profession with the Society of Friends," and for many years was confined to them alone; the rich and poor sharing alike its benefits. The applications for admission from this and neighbouring States, becoming so numerous and importunate, it was finally opened to all applicants, upon the submission of a formal certificate from a physician, with a proviso, that "in no case should a member or professor be excluded." It is located about five miles north of the city, and one mile westward from Frankford. The building is 322 feet 8 inches in length. Pliny Earle, M. D., is the resident physician.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind.—This institution for the instruction of the blind, is situated in Race street, between Schuylkill Second and Third streets, and was founded in the year 1833, through the exertions of numerous individuals, among whom the late John Vaughan was conspicuous. The object of the Institution is to impart to the pupils a knowledge of literature, music and mechanism, in which it has been eminently successful.

Dr. Joshhua Rhodes is superintendent.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb—At the corner of Broad and Pine streets, was founded in the year 1820 by an association of citizens. It was incorporated in 1821, and removed to the present building in 1825, the original cost of which was $80,000. There are at present in the Institution about 168 pupils, 50 of whom are females. The whole number of pupils admitted since its establishment to the present time, is nearly five hundred and ninety-six.

Preston Retreat.—Designed as a lying-in hospital for indigent married women, was founded in 1835, by bequest of Dr. Jonas Preston. The building, but lately finished, is large and elegant, and the lot upon which it is erected occupies an entire square, extending from Schuylkill Second to Third streets, and from Hamilton to Spring Garden streets. The funds left for the support of the institution are ample, but in consequence of their not being available, being invested in Schuylkill Navigation Company stock, the object of the testator has not yet been carried into effect.

Wills Hospital, for the relief of indigent lame and blind, is situated in Race street, between Schuylkill Fourth and Fifth streets, was founded by the late James Wills, and is under the direction of City Councils. The number of patients at any one time cannot exceed 27.

United States Naval Asylum.—This institution is situated on the east side of the river Schuylkill, a short distance above the United States Arsenal, was founded in the year 1835, by the U. S. Government. Commodore Biddle is the Governor. It is designed as a Naval School, and a Hospital for pensioners who are either injured in the service of the United States, or who have been in the service 20 years.

Shelter for Coloured Orphans.—This institution is located in Thirteenth street above Callowhill; was incorporated in 1822, and is supported by donations from members and others, and by annual contributions and bequests. It is managed by a society of females belonging to the Society of Friends. Children are taken in over the age of 18 months and under 8 years. The children here are well provided with comforts, and great attention is paid to educate them. The society is deserving, and should receive aid from our citizens at all times of the year.

City Hospital.—Located at the corner of Schuylkill Fourth and Coates street; is under the charge of the Board of Health, and designed for the reception of small-pox patients only. During the year 186 patients were admitted, of this number 34 died, 17 of whom were white persons, and 17 coloured, none of whom were vaccinated so far as could be ascertained.

St. Charles Theological Seminary.—This institution, located at the N. E. corner of Race and Schuylkill Fifth streets, is designed to prepare students for ecclesiastical orders, and depends entirely for support upon contributions from members of the diocese of the Catholic Church, and was incorporated in 1838. Its library consists of over 5000 volumes. There are three professors.

The Apprentices' Library.—This institution is now located at the south-west corner of Fifth and Arch streets—was instituted by contribution from citizens, in the year 1819. It contains 11,000 volumes, and about 1300 boys avail themselves of its benefits. It is now open for "all boys and girls who give a sufficient guarantee for the careful use and proper return of the books." It is supported by contributions from members, of two dollars per year, which entitles them to the use of the library.

Christ Church Hospital.—This institution is located in Cherry street, above Third, and designed for the support of indigent women belonging to the Episcopal Church; was founded in the year 1785, by bequest of Dr. Casely. It is under the management of the Episcopal Church.

University of Pennsylvania.—Situated in Ninth street, between Market and Chestnut; was instituted in the year 1765. It numbers 7 professors, and has an average class of 350 students. William E. Horner, M. D., Dean.

Jefferson Medical College.—This college is located No. 56 South Tenth street. It was instituted in the year 1825, by the Jefferson Medical college of Cannonsburg, in this State; but by subsequent acts of legislation it has been disconnected, and erected into a separate institution, with all the powers of the University of Pennsylvania. It has 7 professors, and an average of 200 students. Robert M. Huston, M. D., Dean.

Pennsylvania Medical College.—This Institution is a branch of the Medical College of Gettysburg, in this State, and was instituted in the year 1839. It has five professors. It is located in Filbert street, above 12th.

U. S. Arsenal.—This establishment is situated on the Gray's Ferry road, below South street, on the Schuylkill river, and is used as a storehouse for materials and clothing for the whole U. S. Army, and also as a receptacle for Quartermaster's stores.

Philadelphia Dispensary.—This institution is located in Fifth street, near Walnut, and under the direction of 12 Managers. It is supported by annual and life contributions. This Institution was founded in the year 1736. There is a Medical School attached to it, recently organized, under the direction of the prescribing Physicians, who deliver Clinical Lectures.

Northern Dispensary.—This Dispensary is located at No. 1 Spring Garden street; was instituted in the year 1816, and chartered March 26, 1817.

It is supported by contributions which are at all times thankfully accepted by the Board of Managers.

Gas Works.—City.—The City Gas Works on Schuylkill Front and Market streets, was founded in the year 1835. The company at present has thirty miles of pipe laid, and the average manufacture of gas is 240,000 cubic feet per day.

Gas Works—Northern Liberties.—The Northern Liberty Gas Works, situated on Laurel near Beach street, were erected in 1838. The company has 31,369 feet, or about 5½ miles of pipe laid, and manufacture upon an average 40,000 cubic feet of gas per day. Public lamps, 141, consumers 563.

City Water Works, Fairmount.—The average quantity of water forced into the basins and distributed through the city and districts per day, is 4,445,630 gallons. The whole length of pipe laid in the city and districts is 113 miles. The reservoirs contain nine days supply of water, cover six acres of ground, are one hundred and two feet above tide, and fifty-six feet above the highest point in the city. There are in the city and districts, 1007 fire plugs. The original cost of the works, together with the yearly expenses since 1822, is 1,483,300. Frederick Graff, Superintendent.

Girard College—Was commenced in July, 1835. There will be five buildings when complete, two of which are now finished. One hundred and sixty men were employed there during the last working season. The amount expended during the year, for the College, and for the use of the Trustees of the same, was $91,328 45.

Custom House.—In the Custom House there is a Collector and two Deputies, Naval Officer and Deputy, Surveyor and Deputy, two Appraisers and two Assistants, one Marker, who employs assistants as required by the amount of business, twenty Clerks, forty-two day Inspectors, and twenty for the night, a Weigh Master and Assistant, three Messengers, and several labourers—making altogether about 100 persons.

MASON'S
BLACKING, & WRITING INK.

The Manufacturer of these articles hereby renews his acknowledgments to dealers and the public generally, for their liberal and increasing support. After many years of experience and close observation as a practical Manufacturer of

SHOE BLACKING & WRITING INK,

JAS. S. M. has the satisfaction to see that his efforts to supply the Public with good preparations have been duly appreciated. MASON'S BLACKING and WRITING INK have obtained a character for superiority and uniformity in quality, which enables dealers to sell them with confidence, and consumers to use them with satisfaction. Pages of commendatory certificates could be here appended, which have been received from the best chemists and most experienced dealers in the United States; but the Manufacturer, for reasons of his own, declines publishing them: the originals will be cheerfully exhibited at any time at the store. The character of Mason's manufactures, and especially their own intrinsic worth, it is believed will be their strongest recommendation.
